

Believing Through Reading

- Hal Sirowitz

*M*other said as God got older, He became shy. He used to make public appearances — like when He parted the Red Sea so the Israelites could escape from the pharaoh.
But nowadays God doesn't even perform in private.
But why do I have to see Him to believe in Him? I should just take Abraham's word for it. If Abraham was going to lie, He'd have done it someplace else, certainly not in the Bible.
